Join Jennifer and Chad from the Pinellas Beekeepers Association for a sneak peek into the fascinating life of the honeybee! Discover who lives inside a hive, how (and why!) bees make honey and uncover the secrets of the mysterious queen bee. This fun and informative presentation will help you learn why bees are so important to our environment and what you can do to help bees - even if you aren't a beekeeper.

You'll have a chance to taste honey from our local beehives and get up close and personal with some of our little buzzing friends. Don't miss it!
